INSTRUCTIONS

Please print or type all information.

ASSIGNMENT

1. The Assignor must be named either on the application for certificate of title or on the title to assign his interest. His name and address are entered in Section A. The name and address of the assignee are entered in Section B.
2. If a secured party shown on an existing certificate of title wishes to assign his interest a fee of [REDACTED] must accompany this assignment. If the assignor does not have the certificate in his possession, he must deliver the assignment to the secured party possessing the title who forwards the title and the assignment to the Department of Motor Vehicles for issuance of a new title.
3. For an assignment noted concurrently with the secured interest, no fee is required. The assignment accompanies the granting of a secured interest.

RELEASE

1. This form is to be completed within 15 days after satisfaction of security agreement by the subordinate secured party involved. His name and address are entered in Section A.
2. This form is then sent to the owner who delivers it to the secured party in possession of the certificate of title. He attaches the form to the title and delivers them to the Motor Vehicle Department.

GRANT

1. A fee of [REDACTED] must accompany this document. Make checks payable to the Motor Vehicle Department.
2. The name of the secured party being added is entered in section A. The secured party in possession of the Certificate of Title must attach this form to the certificate of title and mail them to the Motor Vehicle Department.
